Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

2. The amended claims satisfy the requirements of this statute.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 6-10, 23 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The rejection of claims 23-24 for the use of the word "system" has been withdrawn. The examiner understands the system to be a system of components commonly referred to as a computer. In response to 1.05 requirement, the applicant submitted the ADVISORSDESIGNS Variable Annuity Prospectus (the variable annuity that uses the claimed invention). The claim language at issue is the scope of the dividend and fee. Claims 6-10, 23 and 24 claim a dividend. Looking to the statement of definitions (Prospectus, page 4), the term "dividend" is noticeably absent. Clarification is requested. The claims also include a fee. Again, this term is noticeably absent. Beginning on page 6 of the prospectus, it is said that certain charges are deducted in connection with the annuity, with no upfront load imposed. Moreover, the document speaks to a Mortality and Expense Risk Charge and other Optional Rider Charges. No fee per se is mentioned. Clarification is requested.

Art Unit: 3624

4. In response to the 1.105, the applicant is requested to identify, if known, prior art methods of administering annual fees and annual asset charges of no load annuity products.
